

CLOAK & DAGGER

The Cloak
Sangiovese
Reviews

90 Points

Halliday Wine Companion, 26 July 2022, Jeni Port
(2021 Vintage)

"Sourced from 70/30% Alpine Valleys/King Valley and showing some classic lightly spiced cherries, juicy raspberry, anise and chocolate varietal characters. Maturation in old French oak has settled the tannin spark, bringing flesh and a plummy, approachable roundness to the palate."

Gabrielle Poy - The Real Review, 11 February, 2022
(2021 Vintage)

"An alluring nose of spiced cherries, fresh leather and cured meats make way for a palate with a strong accent on jubey red fruits."

Stuart Knox, The Real Review, 12 June, 2021
(2020 vintage)

"Medium ruby-red core into a very bright and purple rim. Cherry juice, thyme and dry earth aromatics. Light and vibrant on the palate, with cherry fruit and smoky-char notes across the middle that is controlled by a hit of gravelly tannins. Not overly complex but a very easy-drinking red. Chill it slightly and order a pizza."

Silver Medal

Australian & New Zealand Boutique Wine Show 2020
(2019 vintage)

50 Best Wines of 2020

Wine Selectors, Selector Magazine, 14 January, 2021
(2019 vintage)

"Promoting itself as an unconventional wine brand with an emphasis on wines without pretence, Wine Unplugged are behind this medium to deep ruby Sangiovese. It opens with aromas of cherry, cranberry and pot pourri while the medium-bodied palate shows earthy, savoury fruits, vibrant acidity, medium-weight tannins, mouth-watering texture and a dry, earthy finish."

90 Points

Halliday Wine Companion, 13 August 2021, Jane Faulkner
(2019 Vintage)

"No pretence of reaching lofty heights, this is all about gluggability and sheer enjoyment. All cherry and berries, pips and a smudge of oak char with the fruit soft across the lighter-framed palate. Juicy with bright enough"